

Jordan Ray

Hey y'all. I'm a junior Journalism major at TCU and I'm working on a story for TCU360 about the growing number of out-of-state students. If any of y'all are from out-of-state and don't mind offering some input on your experiences so far, just comment on here and I'll e-mail you some questions to answer. They'll all be super straightforward and any help would be fantastic. I'm trying to get as many different opinions as possible on the admissions process.

Hope to hear from some of you soon and Go Frogs!
